ABOUT THE AREA

Mandelieu-la-Napoule is a commune in the Alpes-Maritimes department of the Provence-Alpes-Cote d'Azur region in Southeastern France. Located on the French Riviera, just to the southwest of Cannes and northeast of Theoule-sur-Mer, it had a population of 21 772 in 2020.

Mandelieu La Napoule stretches out over 14,000ha. and offers wonderful panoramas. You can see the Esterel massif with its red cliffs outlined by the Mediterranean blue skies. The Tanneron massif which is home to the first and main French terroir for the production of the Mimosa flower.

There are isolated wild inlets and sandy beaches. From the heights of Mandelieu, you can take in the Bay of Cannes, the Napoule golf course and the Lerins islands with a single glance. Under no circumstances should you miss the Mimosa Festival which takes place every year in February. It takes place over 10 days with its two big corsos and its numerous animations. The Mimosa Festival constitutes with the carnival of Nice and the lemon festival of Menton, the major carnival program of the French Riviera.

Alpes-Maritimes is a department in southeast France that includes part of the Cote d'Azur. In Nice, the Promenade des Anglais hugs the pebbly shore of the Baie des Anges. Musee Matisse has paintings and sculptures of former resident Henri Matisse. Musee National Marc Chagall features the artist's religious works. Cannes, a glitzy resort town, is known for its film festival and the seafront Boulevard de la Croisette
