ABOUT THE AREA

Bahceli is located 30 km east of Kyrenia and neighbors Esentepe. The area is surrounded by beautiful nature, nestled in the foothills of the five finger mountains. Bahceli is a paradise for nature lovers with a mix of beautiful sandy beaches, rocky coves, plains and mountains. The long coastline is backed by the Beşparmak (Five Fingers) mountain range, which forms a stunning backdrop with its forested slopes and magnificent limestone peaks.

Between Esentepe and Bahceli there is a road in the mountains surrounded by beautiful pine forests, which is perfect for cycling or walking. It is most beautiful in the evening when the golden sunlight shines through the trees creating a majestic natural light, something that everyone should experience.

Kyrenia District is one of the six districts of Cyprus. Its main town is Kyrenia (Greek: Κερύνεια; Turkish: Girne). It is the smallest of Cyprus' districts, and is the only one controlled in its entirety by the unrecognised de facto state of Northern Cyprus, where the same territory is administered as the de facto Girne District, a distinct entity.

It is bordered on the south by Nicosia District and on the east and south-east by Famagusta District. It includes much of the north coast, with the towns of Kyrenia, Lapethos and Karavas. Also the Kyrenia Mountains, which overlook the coast, with the prominent castles of St. Hilarion and Buffavento.
