This plot of 1,070 square meters is located in Llano Almendra, a hamlet in the municipality of Comares (the balcony of the Axarquia), in the province of Malaga, Andalusia, Spain. The property is in a quiet location surrounded by mountains and close to the river. Many years ago this land was owned by the same family and has been segregated between the heirs. The plot is completely fenced and has a part of the old cortijo within its boundaries which could be reformed or used as storage while a new property is being built. The plot is 8 km from Comares and 10 km from Riogordo where you can find all kinds of shops, bars, banks, schools and colleges. The price is negotiable and offers are awaited.
