Maro is a picturesque village in Nerja, located next to the Sierras de Tejada, Almirajara, and Alhama Natural Park. Its setting combines the tranquility of an Andalusian white village with narrow streets, flower-filled squares, and an authentic atmosphere, with the proximity of the Mediterranean Sea and spectacular mountain landscapes.

It is world-renowned for being home to the Nerja Caves, one of the area's main tourist attractions, and for being surrounded by cliffs and natural coves that are part of the Maro-Cerro Gordo Cliffs Natural Park.

Despite its peaceful and traditional character, Maro is just a few minutes' drive from the center of Nerja, where all kinds of services, shops, and restaurants are located, and less than an hour from Malaga International Airport.

An ideal place for those seeking quality of life, authenticity, and the unique charm of Malaga's eastern coast.
