Descrizione:

Set on a land size of approximately 200–225 sqm with a total building area of 284 sqm, this leasehold villa is designed to offer space, privacy, and everyday comfort. The property features four bedrooms and five bathrooms arranged across two levels, complemented by a private pool and a garden that adds breathing room to the layout. Fully furnished and thoughtfully planned, the villa supports both large family living and flexible long-term use.

Positioned in Tampak Siring, Ubud, the villa is part of a one-gate residential environment that creates a more organized and secure setting. The area is known for its calm atmosphere and greenery, making it suitable for residents seeking a quieter lifestyle away from crowded tourist zones. Despite the peaceful surroundings, Central Ubud remains within a convenient 15-minute drive, ensuring easy access to cultural attractions, dining, and daily facilities.

This villa is well-suited for families looking for a long-term residence in Ubud, while also offering strong potential for investment use. Its spacious configuration, private parking for up to two cars, and desirable location contribute to sustained appeal over time. A practical option for those seeking a balanced property that works both as a comfortable living space and a long-term asset.
