Torrevieja is a coastal city located in the Vega Baja region, in the south of the province of Alicante. Nestled on the Mediterranean coast, in an area of great natural and ecological value, the city is located near the La Mata and Torrevieja lagoons, one of the most important wetlands in Valencia, which also houses one of the largest salt flats in Europe. Thanks to its location by the sea, the city enjoys a Mediterranean climate with mild average temperatures and abundant sunshine. Torrevieja is therefore an ideal place to live and enjoy the Mediterranean to the fullest.

Torrevieja's extensive 14-kilometre coastline, stretching from Playa de la Mata to Punta Prima and passing through Los Locos, El Cura, Los Naufragos and Cala Ferris, offers numerous beaches, rocky coves and picturesque spots. Torrevieja has grown up around the sea, and its town centre, made up of beaches, marinas and a promenade, extends to pedestrian streets full of restaurants, shops and cultural institutions, as well as countless monuments, squares and charming coastal areas.
