Executive Overview

Opportunities of this scale and caliber are virtually non-existent in today's North Coast property market. Spanning a vast 3,660 m2, this exceptional parcel of land represents one of the final remaining large stands within the renowned Simbithi Eco Estate.

Positioned to maximize natural light, privacy, and the lush coastal topography that defines the region, this plot affords an unprecedented canvas for an visionary buyer. Whether you choose to leverage the existing fully approved architectural vision or tailor the layout to your distinct lifestyle, this property stands as a hallmark investment in South Africa's premier eco-residential address.

Architectural Vision & Turnkey Advantages

Navigating the design, submission, and approval phase for a grand-scale estate residence can typically take many months. This property drastically streamlines that process by including fully pre-approved flagship architectural plans.

Property Specifications & Features

- * Substantial Plot Size: At 3,660 m2, the site easily accommodates expansive indoor and outdoor entertainment zones, multi-vehicle garages, private landscaped gardens, and auxiliary structures without feeling constrained.
- * Monumental Residence Design: The plans cater to a grand $\pm 1,600$ m2 luxury home engineered to seamlessly fuse contemporary architectural elegance with the indigenous subtropical landscape.
- * Seamless Flow: The approved footprint prioritizes open-plan living, indoor-outdoor transitions, multiple en-suite bedrooms, private entertainment pavilions, and dedicated wellness or work-from-home spaces.
- * Immediate Progression: Possessing pre-approved plans removes significant regulatory friction, saving valuable time and allowing the purchaser to break ground and begin construction with minimal delay.

The Simbithi Lifestyle Advantage

Simbithi Eco Estate is a 430-hectare eco-conscious sanctuary located in the heart of the Dolphin Coast, just 20 minutes from King Shaka International Airport. About the Area

Simbithi Eco Estate is a premier 430-hectare residential sanctuary located in the heart of the KwaZulu-Natal North Coast in South Africa. Designed to coexist seamlessly with its natural surroundings, the estate features lush indigenous vegetation, rolling hills, and rich biodiversity. Residents and guests enjoy an elevated coastal lifestyle centered around eco-friendly living, state-of-the-art security, and a strong sense of community.

Positioned along the vibrant Dolphin Coast corridor between Ballito and Salt Rock, Simbithi sits just north of the busy metropolis of Durban. Its strategic location offers easy access to nearby coastal hubs like Umhlali, a historic village known for its agricultural heritage and country atmosphere. This setting provides the perfect balance between quiet, nature-focused estate living and proximity to top-tier schools, shopping centers, and medical facilities.

The estate is renowned for its world-class amenities catered to active, family-oriented lifestyles. At its core is the Peter Matkovich-designed 18-hole executive golf course, accompanied by a popular country club, sports facilities, and several community centers with swimming pools. Miles of scenic walking and mountain biking trails wind through forests and past 29 natural dams, creating ideal spots for catch-and-release fishing or wildlife viewing.

Travelers and residents benefit from exceptional regional and international connectivity, as the nearest airport is King Shaka International Airport (DUR). Located in La Mercy, the airport is situated just 15 kilometers south of the estate. A quick 15- to 20-minute drive via the N2 highway makes commuting, business travel, and leisure trips remarkably convenient.
