Set within landscaped gardens and surrounded by greenery, the property is close to Praia do Vau and within easy walking distance of the picturesque village of Alvor, renowned for its gastronomy and natural beauty.

The kitchen connects to the exceptionally spacious living area, divided into a dining area, reading room and library, and TV lounge. A double-sided glass gas fireplace creates a striking focal point between the living spaces, while large windows provide views across the pool and gardens.

The basement offers versatile additional space, including an office that could also be used as an additional bedroom, as well as a fully finished bathroom. The property also includes a dedicated laundry room, a separate storage room and a spacious three-car garage with extensive storage.
