Compracasa is a Real Estate Network integrated exclusively by members of APEMIP (Association of Professionals and Real Estate Mediation Companies of Portugal), guarantee of professionalism and protection of the rights of consumers and users.

APEMIP currently occupies a prominent position in the national real estate market, either by the continuous commitment to affirm the role of the real estate mediation professional in our society, or by gaining a greater share in the real estate transaction market, in line with the motto "Strengthen Mediation, Boost the Economy and Serve Consumers".

For its part, UCI (Real Estate Credits Union) is a Financial Institution specialized in the granting of housing loans to individuals through professionals in the real estate sector. UCI is the result of a joint venture between two of Europe's largest financial groups: Grupo Santander, the BNP Paribas Group. From this union comes the commitment to help develop the real estate mediation sector, putting at your fingertips the best tools that enable the real estate business to be enhanced.

In this sense, it is perfectly logical that these two reference entities in the real estate mediation sector (APEMIP and UCI) concluded a collaboration agreement in June 2004 giving rise to ComprarCasa Apemip Real Estate Network.

ComprarCasa starts its commercial activity in August 2004 based on the mission of "Being the Largest and Best National Real Estate Network offering multiple services to real estate agents, based on the common brand concept", enabling and enhancing synergies that turn into added values for the market, namely for you who want to sell, buy, rent or trespass a particular property.
