In the heart of the city, we find the Republic Square, also known as Fruit Square. With beginnings dating back to the 15th century, this colorful open-air market is the only one that, in the national territory, takes place daily. It is a showcase of the rich agricultural and gastronomic production of the region and a privileged place to observe The New Art in Caldas. The romantic tiled facades surround this vibrant square, which also houses the historic Café Central and the Chapel of St. Sebastian. Those interested in Art Nova, can leave the square to Rua Dr. Miguel Bombarda, to be able to appreciate more examples of this movement making the New Art Script.

To speak of caldas is to speak of Bordalo, who here left a lasting influence. The Faianças factory of Caldas da Rainha was created by him in 1884, with the help of Ramalho Ortigão, and became a worldwide reference and its objects an icon of Portuguese culture, present in thousands of houses. At casa museu de São Rafael, you can visit an exhibition composed of pieces created in the factory next door and get an idea of the evolution of the brand. And in the shop also in the vicinity, you can buy the colorful dishes and ceramics. Lovers of the open air, on the other hand, find in the Mata Rainha D. Leonor, created to protect the hot springs that were supplying the Hospital, a place full of natural beauty, with its imposing trees and 17 hectares of fresh air and refreshing walks.
