About the Area

The Carretera Austral is the name given to Chile's Route 7. The highway runs south for about 1,240 kilometers from Puerto Montt to Villa O'Higgins, passing through rural Patagonia. Carretera Austral provides road access to Chile's Aysén Region and southern parts of Los Lagos Region.

More than 1,200 kilometers of natural beauty await you on this scenic Patagonian Route, unique in the world. The Austral Highway enchants all those who visit it by car or bicycle with pristine landscapes and an air that only those lucky enough to know this route can breathe.

Possessing an enormous diversity of landscapes, it is ideal to enjoy adventure sports. Go rafting on the Futaleufú River or get to know the corners of this place touched by a magic wand with one of the many trekking routes that exist in this Green Patagonia.

Combine your trip with a visit to the glaciers that enhance one of the last corners of the world and be amazed by Caleta Tortel, a town with characteristic cypress walkways.

On the Carretera Austral, get to know a piece of paradise. Pumalín Park. Almost untouched by man, these warm rainforest lands were declared a Nature Sanctuary. Walk along its paths designed for long journeys, go trekking and canyoning on its fjords and camp at the foot of isolated secret waterfalls.

Visit the Michimada Volcano on horseback and go deeper into its lush larch forests through the paths and wooden bridges scattered around this magical place. Keep your eyes peeled, because the park is home to a large number of birds, from herons and flamingos to mighty condors.
