Omschrijving:

Prestigious 18th-century mansion on 397 acres of private land, enchanting panoramic position for sale south of Siena. Once an ancient Etruscan site, the 1800 sq m / 19 sq ft housing development has been carefully restored to an excellent standard, preserving the original Tuscan architectural features, such as wooden beamed ceilings, terracotta and traditional ceramic floors, grand fireplaces dating back to the 17th century and antique furnishings. The eight independent apartments spread across the five buildings expertly combine these original elements with every modern comfort and technological advancement of today, as evidenced by one apartment's transformation from an ancient church into an evocative dwelling. The property is ideally suited as a holiday let and has operated as such an establishment for the last 30 years, boasting a loyal clientele. Completing the property is a large, panoramic infinity edge pool harmoniously integrated with the surrounding garden from where it is possible to admire Torre del Mangia, the famous Town Hall of Siena only 18 km away.
