Omschrijving:

Just 3 km from the coast and the sunny beaches of Axarquía (Eastern Costa del Sol), the village of Algarrobo (Málaga) enjoys growing interest from international buyers.

Algarrobo has all the services: health center, pharmacy, bank, supermarkets, bars and restaurants, etc. Not being a strictly tourist place, it is especially suitable for those who love to live in an authentic social and cultural environment, where human relationships are spontaneous and natural.

This 1997 built house has had sole occupancy since 2003, but has hardly been lived in, looks as good as new, albeit a little dated. It is sold fully furnished with very good quality furniture.

The property is developed in two floors, with a total of 120m built, and consists of a living-dining room, an independent kitchen, three bedrooms, two bathrooms, an office study, a storage area, utility room and a comfortable terrace. With high ceilings, is suitable for tall people from northern Europe.

The house is accessed from the street by going up the marble and granite stairs to the first floor, which consists of the master bedroom, fully fitted bathroom with shower, a large lounge diner with two sofas and a dining table seating eight, electric heating and ceiling fans.

Further from there is a spacious office study, or another bedroom, and a fully fitted independent kitchen, with oven, hob, extractor, microwave oven, large fridge freezer and a dishwasher.

Stairs up lead to a landing with storage space and electric heating, large utility room with lots of storage room, washing machine and tumble dryer, two single bedrooms and a complete bathroom , and a 20m terrace with village views.

The quality of the materials used in its construction, and its excellent state of conservation, make this property a safe investment, for the short to long term.
