ABOUT THE AREA

Escazu, often dubbed the 'Beverly Hills of Costa Rica,' is a highly sought-after suburb located in the western foothills of San José, the nation's capital. This affluent district has earned its reputation for its upscale amenities, luxurious properties, and a vibrant expatriate community. It offers a unique blend of modern conveniences and glimpses of traditional Costa Rican charm, making it a popular choice for those seeking a high standard of living in Central America. Residents enjoy a comfortable climate due to Escazu's higher elevation, which provides cooler and less humid conditions compared to lower-lying regions.

The appeal of Escazu lies in its comprehensive infrastructure and services. The area boasts some of Costa Rica's finest shopping centers, including Multiplaza Escazu and Avenida Escazu, offering a wide array of international brands, boutiques, and dining options. Top-tier medical facilities like CIMA Hospital are readily available, catering to both residents and medical tourists. Beyond commercial and healthcare services, Escazu provides a rich lifestyle with numerous gourmet restaurants, cafes, and entertainment venues. For families, there are a variety of excellent bilingual schools, making it an attractive destination for those with children.

While Escazu offers a cosmopolitan lifestyle, it also provides access to the natural beauty that defines Costa Rica. Its proximity to San José means easy access to cultural attractions, government offices, and business centers. However, within Escazu itself, areas like San Antonio offer a more tranquil, rural atmosphere with stunning mountain views, providing a peaceful escape from the urban buzz. Whether one prefers the bustling energy of San Rafael's commercial hub or the serene landscapes of the higher elevations, Escazu caters to diverse preferences.

For international travelers and residents, the nearest major airport is Juan Santamaría International Airport (SJO), located just outside of San José in Alajuela. This is Costa Rica's largest and busiest international airport, offering connections to numerous cities worldwide. Escazu is conveniently located approximately 19-25 kilometers (about 12-15 miles) from SJO, with travel times typically ranging from 20 to 30 minutes depending on traffic conditions.
