Property Details

With its glorious natural scenery, warm climate, welcoming culture and low cost of living, India is quickly gaining a reputation as one of the most desirable places across the world to live or visit. On offer here is a chance to make a smart financial investment into this magnificent part of the world.

Large 5-room property with kitchen to rear of the property and flat roof suitable for yoga/meditation. Lakeside property 5 minutes walk from unspoiled, sandy Kappil beach. The property is a short rickshaw ride from the lively but relaxed resort of Varkala with its range of open air restaurants, craft shops and Tibetan market.

Varkala faces West over, looking the Arabian sea and has a long, sandy, unspoiled beach. The spectacular evening sunsets are not to be missed and are equally visible from the property, which also faces West. Kappil is about half a day's drive from the tea plantations, spice gardens and Periyar Nature Reserve situated in the Eastern Ghats.

It is also a 3 hour train ride from the modern and lively city of Cochin, which is also rich in culture. There is an array of temples and mosques which add local culture. The property is secluded and relaxed but is in easy access of a wide range of places of interest.

ABOUT THE AREA

Kappil is a tourist spot in Kollam district, Kerala state, India. It is located in Edava Panchayat of Varkala Taluk at the coast of Arabian Sea. It is 18 km north of Kollam city centre. Varkala Railway Station is major railway station near Kappil.

Kerala, a state on India's tropical Malabar Coast, has nearly 600km of Arabian Sea shoreline. It's known for its palm-lined beaches and backwaters, a network of canals. Inland are the Western Ghats, mountains whose slopes support tea, coffee and spice plantations as well as wildlife. National parks like Eravikulam and Periyar, plus Wayanad and other sanctuaries, are home to elephants, langur monkeys and tigers.
