Period home dating back to the 18th century, situated in Positano, with views over the charming town and the stunning bay.

On 3 floors the villa comprises on the main floor a large living room with bright and panoramic windows facing the sea and Positano, with access onto a large terrace, drawing room, fully fitted kitchen and 1 suite with bathrooms.

The upper floor consists of 4 large and bright bedrooms with en-suite bathroom, with sea view and balconies, and one single bedroom with also its own bathroom and sea view. All bedrooms boast frescoed vaulted ceiling with original paintings, marble fireplaces, hand painted doors and typical ceramic floors with decorations.

The garden area featuring a private swimming pool with sea view, a large solarium area, bar and a dressing room with bathroom, is situated in the lower level where there is another large suite with bathroom.

The villa, currently used as a boutique hotel, boast high ceiling, large windows and period finishing throughout.
