ABOUT THE AREA

Gorsko Kalugerovo: A Peaceful Retreat in the Bulgarian Countryside

Gorsko Kalugerovo, a charming village nestled in the heart of Bulgaria's Veliko Tarnovo Province, offers a tranquil escape from the hustle and bustle of city life. Located near the towns of Pavlikeni and Suhindol, this picturesque village provides a perfect blend of rural tranquility and easy access to urban amenities.

The name 'Gorsko Kalugerovo' translates to 'Forest Monastery,' hinting at the village's rich history. Indeed, the village once housed a monastery where monks resided, and their presence gave the village its name. Today, while the monastery is no more, the peaceful and spiritual atmosphere of the village remains.

Surrounded by lush forests and rolling hills, Gorsko Kalugerovo is a nature lover's paradise. The nearby Alexander Stamboliiski Dam offers opportunities for water sports and fishing, while the surrounding countryside is perfect for hiking, biking, and exploring. The village itself is well-maintained, with good roads and street lighting, making it a comfortable place to live or visit.

For those seeking a more active lifestyle, the region offers a variety of attractions. The historic towns of Pavlikeni and Veliko Tarnovo are within easy reach, and both offer a wealth of historical and cultural sites. The Pavlikeni Zoo, with its free admission, is a popular attraction for families, and the ancient ceramic center near the town is a fascinating glimpse into the region's past.

The nearest international airports to Pavlikeni are Sofia International Airport (SOF) and Varna International Airport (VAR). Both airports offer a wide range of domestic and international flights, making it easy to reach Pavlikeni from various destinations.
