Location:

Ravda is a seaside resort town with an attractive mild climate. The resort has a pronounced focus on youth resort holidays, for children and families.

Here you can find something to your liking – in terms of active recreation. In the summer, there are sports schools of various scales, including water skiing, sailing and rowing. The beach here is quite long. It stretches from south to north – from Acheloy to Nessebar. The infrastructure on the beaches is well developed. There is everything you can think of for an active, fun and safe holiday with comfort. Not so long ago, a large-scale water park was opened, where you can ride slides and try out a lot of other water attractions.

Ravda has a well-developed urban infrastructure. There is everything that a city dweller may need. For example, numerous shops, a supermarket. There is also its own market. Ravda is located just 25 kilometers from Burgas Airport and 5 kilometers from the famous Sunny Beach resort.
