ABOUT THE AREA

Polis, which in Greek means town, is one of the most beautiful, authentic and friendly towns of Cyprus. This historic town has its own character, interesting buildings, museum, a beautiful church and the main square which provides a real social hub. All expected amenities are provided, with many excellent restaurants, bars, shops, internet cafes, banks etc.. In the warm summer evenings Outside entertainment by local performers is often available for all to enjoy. Dotted with citrus groves, overlooking turquoise seas, Polis is the least developed beach resort in the South of Cyprus.

It is the perfect base for a relaxing, interesting stay and also for an activity holiday, offering easy access to the varied landscapes of rocky promontories, lush meadows, rugged forests, sleepy monasteries and quiet beaches all along the coast in this largely unspoiled western region of Cyprus. The Blue Flag sandy beach at Chrysochous bay (with Taverna, bar and sunbeds), close to a small forest of Pine trees, is the nearest to the apartment. The new walk and cycle path that runs along this beach from Polis to the fishing port Latchi is ideal for evening strolls and for selecting your preferred spot on this beach – where the sea is calm and sheltered and hence ideal for swimming.

Visit Latchi with its great harbour-side fish restaurants and marina where water sports, scuba diving and boating excursions are available activities. Walk or cycle to Latchi using the path along the beach (shortest distance) or drive/cycle along the road to Latchi which also has its own cycle/walking promenade. Polis is near romantic tourist sites, close to where Aphrodite, goddess of love and beauty, used to meet her beloved Adonis. It looks across Chrysochou Bay to the nearby Akamas Peninsula, a spectacular nature conservation area complete with unique coves for sunbathing and swimming and hiking trails steeped in mythological legends. Polis is also an ideal base for easy access to the surrounding coastal and mountain villages which offer authentic Greek Cypriot hospitality, culture and cuisine, while unique flora and fauna abound.

It is within easy reach of bustling towns like Paphos (30 mins drive only), the Trodos mountains and also the airport. Activities like Jeep Safaris, Quad biking, Scuba diving, Go Karting, Coastal cruises, horse riding, water and amusement parks and golf courses are easily accessible from Polis. For some extra pampering visit the Natural Healing Spa resort in nearby Miliou next to Miliou's healing springs (10-15 mins by car).
