The apartment is located on the second floor of a residential building without a support fee and is ideal for those who appreciate comfort, silence and proximity to the sea.

The spacious living room with a kitchen area is decorated in a modern style and filled with natural light. Two separate bedrooms provide privacy and comfort, and the large terrace is the perfect place for morning coffee or evening outdoor relaxation. The apartment is fully equipped with furniture and household appliances, which allows you to move in and live without additional investment.

The location makes this property particularly attractive: the beach, shops, cafes and public transport stops are within walking distance, and Burgas Airport is only about 2 kilometers away.

This apartment is an excellent solution for year—round living, as well as for relaxing by the sea or renting.
