Description

Given its prime location just block from the Town Plaza this active bar is a hit with both the locals and tourists alike.

When you combine 2 pool tables a juke box seating for 40 upscale wines by the glass and a fully stocked bar you have just found the recipe for a successful venture. Viejanos Bar or The Oldies Bar is ripe for a complete remodel to bring it up to the standards of some of the other notable bars in San Blas and with its proven track record of successful business operations for the past few decades you will have the built in clientele to follow you.

The building is being sold with the Business and it is 132 square meters of construction with one bedroom and 2 baths.
