Why Casco Viejo?

- * One of the fastest-growing economies in Latin America
- * Low property taxes and low transactional costs to buy
- * Home to over 140 regional offices of multinational companies
- * Stable economy, which increased significantly by 7.3% last year
- * Picturesque peninsula overlooking the Pacific Ocean, minutes from Panama City's downtown
- * The most popular and iconic tourist destination in Panama City

Located on a small peninsula overlooking the Pacific Ocean, Casco Viejo is the historic heart of Panama City.

This UNESCO World Heritage Site is renowned for its charming cobblestone streets, colonial-era architecture, and vibrant mix of cultures. Just minutes from the modern downtown skyline, Casco Viejo offers a unique blend of old-world charm and contemporary energy, with an array of boutique hotels, rooftop bars, art galleries, and some of Panama's finest restaurants.

Its central location provides easy access to the Cinta Costera waterfront, the Metro system, and key cultural landmarks, making it one of the most desirable and walkable neighbourhoods in the city.
