We have for sale this elegant residence, located in a historic district of Alençon city centre, near cultural landmarks (library, grain market, Dukes' Castle, etc.), and within easy reach of all amenities.

How could one resist this private mansion, with its unique design, which has perfectly preserved its period features, including parquet floors, fireplaces, terracotta tiles, and mouldings, while benefiting from a warm and inviting renovation?

Its comfortable living space of approximately 210m² comprises:

- Ground floor: an entrance hall with a stone staircase, leading to a living room on one side, a dining room on the other, and a fitted and equipped kitchen (accessed by a second staircase).
- First floor: you will find a beautiful bedroom with its own study, dressing room, and bathroom, as well as two further bedrooms with en-suite shower rooms, toilets, and dressing rooms.
- Second floor: there is a fourth bedroom with an en-suite shower room and toilet, and an additional space that can be converted to suit your needs, allowing for the creation of further bedrooms or other living areas.

There is a partial cellar.

Outbuildings include a boiler room and garage.

All of this is set within a beautifully maintained garden, featuring lovely rose bushes and other trees, fully enclosed and private, with a courtyard for parking.

The department of Orne, in Lower Normandy is bordered by the other two departments in the region, Manche and Calvados. It is located in the south of the region bordering with Mayenne, Sarthe, Eure et Loir and Eure. It is the only Normandy department without a coastline.

Orne's history was built through war, destruction and chaos but also through prosperity so don't worry it is a calm and peaceful place to live and visit now! It has rolling countryside, open meadows and boasts some of the best weekly markets in France.

Nowadays you can still see vestiges from all the troubled periods, as well as modern architecture that followed WWII. Nice property in the area is easy to find and reasonably priced.
