Gabian - An Authentic Village in the Heart of Languedoc

Nestled between vineyards and rolling hills, Gabian is a charming village in southern France, located in the Herault region, just 15 km from Pezenas and a short distance from the Mediterranean beaches. Rich in history and character, this wine-growing village captivates with its cobbled streets, stone houses, and peaceful, welcoming atmosphere.

The village has both a primary school and a kindergarten, making it an ideal place to live for families seeking a safe, natural, and friendly environment.

Surrounded by gentle landscapes, renowned vineyards, and fragrant scrubland, Gabian offers an idyllic setting for lovers of authenticity, heritage, and tranquility. The local life is vibrant, with a weekly market, nearby shops, traditional festivals, and the warm hospitality typical of southern France.

Perfectly situated between sea and mountains, Gabian is an excellent starting point to explore the cultural, natural, and gastronomic treasures of Occitanie while enjoying the calm of a preserved environment.
