spaces, featuring 4 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, and 2 living areas, are priced at €465,500, while the exterior assets, including the 7×3.5m swimming pool, three dedicated parking spaces, and expansive stone terraces, are valued at €184,500. ## ABOUT THE AREA

Okrug Donji is a charming coastal village located on the western side of the island of Čiovo in the Dalmatian region of Croatia. It is part of the Okrug municipality and is traditionally known for its peaceful atmosphere, far removed from the bustling crowds of larger tourist centers. The village is surrounded by lush Mediterranean vegetation, olive groves, and crystal-clear turquoise waters, making it an ideal destination for those seeking a quiet retreat that still captures the authentic spirit of a Croatian fishing village.

The coastline of Okrug Donji is characterized by a mix of pebble beaches, secluded rocky coves, and hidden swimming spots that offer incredible views of the neighboring islands of Šolta and Drvenik. Unlike its neighbor, Okrug Gornji, which is famous for its lively 'Copacabana' beach and beach bars, Okrug Donji maintains a slower pace of life. It is particularly popular for outdoor enthusiasts who enjoy scenic coastal walks, cycling trails, and diving in the pristine waters of the Adriatic.

Despite its island feel, Okrug Donji is highly accessible. The island of Čiovo is connected to the mainland and the UNESCO-protected historic city of Trogir by two bridges—the old stone bridge in the center and the modern 'Čiovo Bridge' opened in 2018. This connectivity allows residents and visitors to enjoy the seclusion of a quiet island village while being only a 15-minute drive away from the world-class dining, shopping, and historical landmarks of Trogir.

The nearest major airport is Split Airport (SPU), located approximately 12 km (about a 20-minute drive) from Okrug Donji. Because the airport is situated on the mainland just across from the island, the transfer is exceptionally quick and convenient, often involving a scenic drive across the new bridge. This proximity makes Okrug Donji one of the most accessible island-style destinations for international travelers flying into the Dalmatian coast.
