Omschrijving:

On the first and second floor of a 1700s palazzo, with parquet and underfloor heating, exposed beams for sale in Barberino Val d'Elsa, Florence. In the authentic heart of Barberino Val d'Elsa, nestled among the rolling Chianti hills just south of Florence, this elegant apartment of 120 sq m unfolds across two levels within a distinguished 18th-century building, thoughtfully restored in the early 2000s and presented today in excellent condition. Accessed from the ground floor via a private entrance hall with staircase, the main level includes a graceful corridor leading into a light-filled living space with open-plan kitchen. Here, fine parquet flooring and exposed timber beams lend warmth and character, subtly reflecting the property's historic origins. This floor also accommodates a bedroom and a bathroom, cleverly designed with a concealed technical area and integrated laundry. The upper level offers a second bedroom, an additional bathroom, a separate shower room, and ancillary storage spaces. Wrought iron window frames with double glazing and mosquito screens ensure both comfort and security, while the property is offered fully furnished, ready for immediate occupation or as an investment opportunity. Self-contained including underfloor heating, broadband internet and satellite TV, provide modern convenience within a period setting. All essential amenities are within easy walking distance, placing the residence in a setting that is both genuinely Tuscan and exceptionally well connected. An ideal proposition as a private home or a refined pied-à-terre in one of the region's most evocative landscapes.
