Versatility and authentic Umbrian character define this historic farmhouse, restored in 2015 and set in the plain of Castel Ritaldi, in the province of Perugia. You are in a private setting yet with services, schools and leisure facilities within 1 km, as well as quick connections to Spoleto, Montefalco and Trevi. The property extends over approximately 7,114 sqm between garden and arable land, with independent access and a private parking area. Outside, the garden surrounds the farmhouse on several sides, alternating manicured lawns and areas dedicated to convivial outdoor living. The 8 x 4 m swimming pool, with paved sunbathing area, represents the heart of the relaxation zone, overlooking the open landscape and the rolling Umbrian hills. Next to the pool there is a technical annex for systems and equipment; on the opposite side an additional outbuilding used as a woodshed and a space designated for parking. The farmhouse, arranged over three levels for approximately 300 commercial sqm, features well-finished exteriors and harmonious elevations. The load-bearing structure underwent consolidation works between 10 and 20 years ago. The main entrance on the ground floor leads to a unit currently used as a reception area, created from an ancient cellar, complete with bathroom, storage room and kitchen: an ideal solution for hospitality management or a professional studio. Also on the ground floor there is an independent apartment comprising living room, kitchen, two bedrooms, bathroom and storage room; outside, a covered porch invites alfresco dining overlooking the greenery. Through the internal entrance door and staircase you reach the first floor, where there are three additional apartments. The first offers a living room with open-plan kitchen, bedroom, bathroom and storage room. The second, arranged over two levels, features on the first floor a living area with open-plan kitchen; an internal staircase leads to the second floor with three bedrooms, two bathrooms and attic. The third apartment, accessed via an external staircase, includes entrance hall, living room with open-plan kitchen, balcony, two bedrooms and bathroom.

Property fully renovated in 2015. The interiors express stylistic coherence with terracotta floors, wooden window frames with double glazing, and custom-made solid wood kitchens. The wood-burning fireplaces enhance the living areas. The systems include methane gas heating with radiators and convectors, air conditioning in the bedrooms, connection to the municipal aqueduct as well as a private well for irrigation.

The entire property is equipped with centralized natural gas heating with radiators and convectors, as well as wood-burning fireplaces with natural convection, while air conditioning is available in all bedrooms. Broadband Wi-Fi Internet access is available in the area, upon request if needed. Water is supplied by the municipal aqueduct, and there is also a private well for garden irrigation.
