Quinta das Trigueiras – 40 Hectares of Excellence in Vila Flor

Quinta das Trigueiras, located in Vilas Boas (Vila Flor), is a 40-hectare property, standing out as an exceptional terroir for the production of high-end white wines and traditional olive oil.

Property Highlights:

Area and Topography: 40 hectares of predominantly flat land (plateau), a rare and valuable characteristic in the region, situated at an altitude of 450-480 meters.

Buildings: Two ruins for total reconstruction

Wine Specialization: Approximately 8 to 10 hectares of vineyards exclusively dedicated to noble white grape varieties (Rabigato, Síria, Gouveio, Viozinho, Malvasia Fina, among others), with granitic soils that confer unparalleled minerality and freshness.

Agricultural Multiculturalism: In addition to the vineyard, the property has a traditional Transmontane olive grove and extensive meadow areas, historically used for grazing, which gives rise to the prestigious Rabaçal cheese.

Tradition and Potential: With long records in the production of White Port Wine, this estate is undergoing a recovery process that allows the new owner to shape the final project of a prestigious brand.

A safe investment in a territory with a recognized designation of origin and quality signature.

Soil Versatility: The granitic soil at this altitude is the "holy grail" for modern white wines, which seek natural acidity and freshness.

Logistics: Being a plateau area (flat terrain), the costs of mechanization and vineyard maintenance are significantly lower than for vineyards on traditional terraces.
