Omschrijving:

Covering an area of 1 300sqm half of which is outdoor space one finds this unique HOUSE OF CHARACTER having most rooms built 375 years ago. Set in a quiet alley on the ground floor one finds a large kitchen and living area enjoying views of the wonderful garden a mill room two yards and stables. An authentic stone staircase leads up to the first floor where one finds three more rooms with the possibility of building more rooms. This lovely property is structurally sound and contains many charming old world features. It can easily be converted into a beautiful family home or a boutique hotel with a very large private garden having ample space for a pool and a large entertaining area. The garden presently has more than 40 trees and 3 reservoirs. To complement this property there is a 3 car driveway that leads to a welcoming sunny courtyard with a separate entrance to a three room guest or nanny apartment. Permits are in hands to further build more bedrooms including en suites to convert this property into an amazing family home. A wonderful property which comes highly recommended. Freehold.
