Omschrijving:

Charming and bright two-bedroom apartment on the 6th floor (conveniently reached by lift) in a beautiful 1950s classicist building, protected as a historical monument. As you enter the spacious living area you will notice a lot of artwork on the walls as well as a mix of vintage, classic and modern furniture along with wooden parquet flooring. Two large rooms open onto a quiet courtyard for a peaceful sleep. One is the master bedroom and the other, which can be used as a guest, children's or office room, has a single bed, a large desk and a nice collection of books. The fully fitted kitchen has an induction hob, oven, fridge/freezer, dishwasher, microwave and coffee maker. The bathroom with bath is separate from the toilet. There is also an extra storage room off the dining area.

The apartment is located in the lively area of Friedrichshain, close to the U-Bahn station Frankfurter Tor. Friedrichshain is also known as the new creative centre of the city, close to Kreuzberg, Neukölln and Mitte. The East Side Gallery, various clubs, restaurants and galleries are within walking distance. Public transport: The U5 underground station is at Frankfurter Tor and Samariterstr. A short walk will take you to Boxhagener Platz and Simon-Dach-Str., famous for its weekend flea market and food stalls. There are also several tram stops nearby.
