Omschrijving:

In Mercês, you will find this 4 bedroom apartment inserted in a building of mixed construction, ideal for those looking for a spacious, bright and well-located house.

With two fronts and two balconies, this property benefits from an excellent entry of natural light and a pleasant feeling of spaciousness. The living room, equipped with a fireplace, is the heart of the house: a cozy space, perfect for family moments, quiet evenings or meetings with friends.

The private area has four bedrooms, offering versatility for different lifestyles. Whether for a large family, to create an office, a study area or a support room, this apartment easily adapts to everyday needs. It also has a bathroom, maintaining a practical and functional distribution.

The location is one of the big highlights. Located just two minutes from the Mercês train station, it allows quick and comfortable travel to Lisbon, Sintra and other surrounding areas. For those who use a car, the proximity to the IC19 and A16 accesses makes trips to Lisbon or Cascais more practical.

The surroundings offer a complete and convenient neighborhood life, with traditional shops, supermarkets, pharmacies, schools, services and restaurants. Everything you need for everyday life is just minutes from home.
