Here you will find a rare gem at a very attractive price - a maison vigneronne with generous spaces and endless possibilities to create exactly the home you dream of. The house is located in Magalas, a lively village with a fantastic setting between mountains and sea. From here, you can reach Beziers in 20 minutes and the Mediterranean beaches in about 30 minutes. In the opposite direction lie the Montagnes Noires, offering beautiful hiking trails and rivers perfect for swimming.

This maison vigneronne currently offers around 167 m<sup>2</sup> of living space, with the possibility to convert even more if needed.

On the ground floor, you will find a kitchen, a living room with a fireplace, a bedroom/office, and a bathroom. On the same level, there is also a large garage/workshop of about 160 m<sup>2</sup> and an additional room of about 40 m<sup>2</sup> where a second kitchen has been installed.

The upper floor is largely untouched and features beautiful original floors in very good condition. There are four bedrooms, including one larger bedroom currently under renovation where new flooring needs to be installed. One of the bedrooms has its own bathroom, and there is another smaller bathroom in the hallway. You will also find a large attic of about 150 m<sup>2</sup> with lovely old floors - perfect for anyone dreaming of a future studio or creative workspace.

In the spacious courtyard, there is a pleasant outdoor area for socializing (see AI-generated inspiration image). The large barn offers fantastic potential for summer parties and gatherings. There is also a fenced pool area. The pool is not currently in use, but it is in good condition and has recently been fitted with a new pump.

The house has very good energy performance, making it both comfortable and economical to live in. Solar panels also contribute to good energy efficiency and currently provide an annual payout.

Magalas is a vibrant and well-equipped village with all the services you may need: restaurants, grocery stores, a hardware shop, hairdressers, doctors, dentists, and much more. A perfect location for those seeking charm, space, and proximity to everything.
