Omschrijving:

Located in the area of Pinhal General, Fernão Ferro, this villa offers an excellent investment or housing opportunity in a privileged location. As it is under construction, you will be able to closely monitor your needs and understand how your dream is being built. Its strategic location allows easy access to services, commerce and public transport, facilitating the daily life of those looking for convenience and practicality.

The Fernão Ferro area is known for its tranquility and strong connection to green areas and leisure spaces, providing a calm and pleasant environment to live or invest. The proximity to the city center ensures quick access to all essential amenities, as well as good road and rail connections that connect Seixal to Lisbon and other nearby regions.

This property has considerable potential for those who want to create a personalized space, taking advantage of its privileged location and the development potential of the area. Whether for a future home or an investment project, this property offers a solid foundation for various possibilities for renovation and adaptation to current real estate market trends. With the right approach, it can transform into a functional and welcoming space, in line with the expectations of a modern and comfortable lifestyle.
