Omschrijving:

Just 6kms from the market town of Civray and nestled in a wonderfully peaceful and private setting on approximately five acres of grounds, this exceptional rural property offers an outstanding lifestyle opportunity with a spacious character home, two independent gites, extensive outbuildings and exciting scope for further development. The beautifully presented main house combines authentic charm with modern comfort, benefitting from a recently installed air-to-water heat pump heating system. At its heart is a generous farmhouse kitchen, perfect for family gatherings, alongside a welcoming living room featuring exposed beams and a wood-burning stove. The flexible ground floor also includes a home office or additional bedroom, a guest bedroom with en-suite shower room. Upstairs, there are three further bedrooms, including an impressive master suite with exposed beams and its own shower room, creating comfortable accommodation for family or guests. Completely independent from the main residence, the two established gites provide an excellent income opportunity or accommodation for extended family and friends. "Jasmine" is a spacious three-bedroom cottage offering a large open-plan living area with fitted kitchen and wood-burning stove, two bathrooms, reversible air conditioning, private and covered terraces, and underfloor heating already installed for future connection. "Wisteria" is a charming one-bedroom gite full of character, with exposed stone walls, beams, wood burner, reversible air conditioning and its own private terrace. (Due to retirement the owners have not rented the gites out over the last year). The outdoor spaces are equally impressive. A fabulous 10m x 5m swimming pool forms the centrepiece of the gardens, complemented by a covered terrace, games room and WC, creating the perfect setting for relaxing or entertaining while enjoying the tranquillity of the surrounding countryside. The impressive collection of outbuildings offers enormous potential for further development (subject to the necessary permissions). These include a substantial 160m² barn with mezzanine, workshops, stables, garages, an open barn and a large former tobacco barn of approximately 150m². In addition, a charming old stone house awaits renovation, offering the possibility of creating a third gite, while another stable with an upper floor presents potential for a fourth holiday cottage. Whether you are seeking a spacious family home, a multi-generational property, or a ready-made tourism business with significant expansion potential, this remarkable country estate offers a rare combination of privacy, character, modern comfort and outstanding commercial possibilities in an idyllic rural setting.
