Location:	Istarska županija, Poreč, Poreč.

Located in the very heart of Poreč, in one of the most prestigious and sought after seaside locations, this unique building plot represents an exceptionally rare opportunity on the real estate market of western Istria.

The plot is located in the first row to the sea, with direct access to the beach from its own yard, while the marina is only a few meters away. This micro-location is considered one of the most exclusive and valuable in Poreč, ideal for the development of a luxury private villa or an exclusive investment project.

According to the valid building regulations, construction is permitted within the existing dimensions, with an allowed ground floor and basement level (-1). This opens the opportunity to create a sophisticated seaside property, with a strong emphasis on privacy and an exceptional location value.
