You can hop on a boat ride along the Manavgat river - passing sea turtles along the way - to the famous waterfall, which is accessorised by shady tea gardens. Once you reach the river mouth in Side, there are sandy beaches that offer a full spectrum of watersports. And while you get stuck into these, most boat tour operators will be busy preparing lunch for your return.

Speaking of Side - which is 20 minutes' drive away - there's a huge amphitheatre here, along with the dune-backed Temple of Apollo. There's an equally impressive, 2,000-year-old amphitheatre and a hill-side acropolis at Aspendos, 45 minutes away.
