Omschrijving:

Excellent plot of land with a total area of 2023 m², located in the Massapez area, Fajã da Ovelha, in a privileged area of the southwest coast of Madeira.

With magnificent views of the Atlantic Ocean, this property stands out for its low altitude location and mild climate, providing excellent conditions to enjoy the sun, nature and tranquility characteristic of this region.

The size and location of the land offer interesting potential for the development of a tourism project, a residential project or, depending on urban planning conditions and applicable licenses, for the implementation of several housing units in a dispersed manner, allowing the creation of a development integrated into the landscape.

The property presents itself as a particularly interesting opportunity for investors, tourism developers or individuals seeking a large plot of land in one of the most sought-after areas of the southwest coast of Madeira.

Main features:

- Total area: 2,023 m²
