A refined apartment in La Quinta, Benahavis with panoramic sea views and villa-style privacy.

Gated development of just 7 homes. 24-hour security, spa and wellness facilities, plus two garage spaces and a private electric buggy.

Sea views, bold architectural lines, and absolute privacy define this extraordinary apartment in La Quinta, a home that delivers the feel of a private villa, complete with panoramic views, generous outdoor space.

A central hall elegantly divides the layout into two distinct wings. On one side, the social spaces unfold around an open-plan kitchen fitted with premium Gaggenau and Miele appliances and a striking floor-to-ceiling wine display. A cozy fireplace and elegant dining and living areas add warmth and sophistication to daily life, while electric blinds, double glazing, and glass doors throughout enhance comfort, light, and energy efficiency. Automated windows open fully to dissolve the boundary between indoors and out, leading onto a sweeping L-shaped terrace with sea views, a lounge and dining area, jacuzzi, outdoor shower, and summer kitchen.

On the other side, the private wing offers a serene master suite with a walk-in wardrobe and full bathroom, along with two further en-suite bedrooms overlooking the landscaped surroundings. A separate laundry room adds everyday convenience.

This brand-new residence comes fully furnished and is climate-controlled year-round with air conditioning and underfloor heating throughout. Smart home systems and premium materials run throughout, while two garage spaces, a dedicated storage room, and a registered electric buggy with private parking complete this exceptional offering.
