Description:

Traditional Tuscan stone-built farmhouse lying inside a protected wildlife park. The house (420 sq.m), is has been renovated maintaining its typically Tuscan architectural details. It is composed of:

Ground Floor: kitchen, dining room with fireplace, living room, large sitting room with fireplace and bathroom.

First Floor: connected with the ground floor by both internal and external staircases - large living room, 5 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms.

Next to the house is a building of approx. 110 sq.m. restructured but with interiors and finishes to complete.

The house is set in 5,200 sq.m. of fenced garden with around 150 olive trees, a well and a swimming pool (7m x 14m) with shower and solarium.

Access to the property is by 1.2 km of gravel road.
