Description:

Molino Magic is a nice sized townhouse for sale on a friendly street in the centre of Pruna, in need of renovation work but would be easy to and reasonable to complete as a holiday home.

The Molino Magic entrance is directly into the spacious main living room area, which has some nice features, off this there is another reception room with beamed ceiling , a passage way leads to the as yet unfinished kitchen and bathroom, giving any buyer the chance to install both to personal taste and requirements

Upstairs there are 2 large bedroom with plenty of space to add an extra bathroom access to the terrace is off the main bedroom , there is an opportunity to create further terracing by replacing part or all of the roof over second bedroom this would give you a great sunny spot to sit back and enjoy the views.

The Molino Magic electrics and plumbing are in working order and the house has a parking space right out front , always an advantage in the villages.The owner already has new internal doors and other materials to help with the updates. The house has a mortgage, with low monthly payments which can be transferred to new owner freeing up funds to do the work.
