Description:

Chioggia is a charming little island, called the small Venice because it looks like a miniature of Venice.

Main attractions: the Duomo, The Clock Tower (which is the oldest in the world), the traditional fish market, several wonderful churches and you can enjoy amazing fish based cuisine

Venice is just 50 km away and it's easily reachable by car, boat or bus in less than 1 hour.

The house is in the heart of Chioggia and the first brick dates back to 1890. The building has been fully renewed both externally and internally with high quality Italian materials and furnishings. It includes 3 spacious bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, double dining room with open kitchen with a terrific view on the main canal and the beautiful Church of San Domenico.
