Facing the tranquil waters of Mar Menor, San Pedro del Pinatar is one of the main tourist destinations on the Murcia coast. Traditionally a seafaring and agricultural centre, San Pedro del Pinatar has become one of the principal tourist towns on Murcia's Costa Cálida.

The main attractions of San Pedro are concentrated around the beach and shore. Here you will find Lo Pagán, a lively tourist centre which has all kinds of holiday facilities, such as hotels, bars, restaurants and shops. Next to the long promenade facing the Mar Menor are extensive beaches such as La Puntica or Villananitos. This watery setting, combined with the facilities at its marina, means you can do a great many sports, such as sailing, scuba diving or windsurfing.

As well as one of the town's architectural symbols, the Quintín mill, the surrounding area contains the Salinas de San Pedro del Pinatar Regional Park, a space where a great many species of migratory birds come to nest. You can also benefit from the therapeutic properties of its mud, especially suitable for treating bone and skin ailments.

ABOUT THE AREA

San Pedro del Pinatar is a small town and municipality in the Region of Murcia, southeastern Spain. The municipality is situated at the northern end of Murcia's Mediterranean coastline, the Costa Cálida, and borders the province of Alicante. It has an area of almost 22 km², and a population of 25,167 as of 2018.

San Pedro del Pinatar is a small traditional Spanish fishing town located in the Murcia region of Spain on the Costa Calida. It is located close to the border of the province of Alicante and the Costa Blanca South meaning you are within easy reach of everything both provinces have to offer.

San Pedro del Pinatar Murcia is located on the north shore of the famous Mar Menor with its sandy beaches and beautiful promenade adjoining the therapeutic mud baths and Salinas walking routes. It is a lively town with shops, bars, restaurants, a local market and a beautiful picturesque marina.
