Trassilico is a small mountain village at 750 msl, situated in the Apuan mountains in Tuscany only 10 kilometres from Galliciano. The cobbled streets and terracotta roofs are only some of the features of this lovely quiet village which has been lived in since Roman times and although all the major services are in Galliciano, Trassilico still has a corner shop and a B&B that also works as a restaurant. Points of interest in Trassilico are the Rocca (the fortress) which dates from the year 740, the mountain views and several churches, the church of San Pietro e Paolo, the church of Santa Elisabetta and the church of San Rocco. The most important event of the year in Trassilico is the Sweet Chestnut Festival which offers the opportunity to taste local products made from local sweet chestnut flour. The main services are only 20 minutes away by car.

Lucca is only 50 minutes away by car and offers restaurants, museums, and other interesting attractions such as taking a bike ride on the Roman walls which surround the city.

Pisa airport is only 1 hour and 20 minutes away by car and the beaches of the Versilian coast are 70 km away (Viareggio, Forte dei Marmi).
