Property Details

One of the largest homes in Panama, this one of a kind, 23,000k sq ft estate is positioned at the highest point of the Valley, set against the mountainside. Strategically positioned between the 2 coastlines, a quick 1 hour drive to the pacific beaches and 2 1/2 to the Caribbean islands. This estate home is the perfect family or corporate retreat. Plenty of space for privacy. Enjoy comfortable year round temperatures without mosquitos, while viewing the sunset from your private balcony of the 4th level terrace. This immaculate estate comes fully furnished with 7 bedrooms, of which 3 are Master Suites accompanied by 9 full bathrooms & 2 half-baths. A built in elevator provides easy access to all 4 stories. Host your guests in any of the 3 on site guest houses. The estate is equipped with full time, triple gate security and camera systems and is completely self sufficient by propane generator and back up well with fully functional hydroponics greenhouse, spring fed ponds and sprinkler system.

Step out onto one of the many endless balconies and view the lush forest and valleys that only begin to encompass the natural beauty of Panama. Discover tranquility with your friends and family while admiring the architecture designed on behalf of Farley Blackman, the former Vice President of British Petroleum. Slip into the infinity pool or by one of the 2 outdoor fireplaces while taking in the panoramic mountain scenery.

Within the exclusively private gates of Valle Escondido, you can experience all there is to offer including amenities such as a golf course, tennis courts and mini golf, a hair salon, spa & wellness center, country club, and endless food and drink possibilities.
