CABO ROIG

Famous and exclusive residential area of Orihuela Costa, which is probably one of the most beautiful on the Costa Blanca.

With a careful urbanization where private villas predominate with their well-kept gardens, wide streets and avenues with palm trees, where you can breathe tranquility and wellbeing surrounded by beautiful beaches and coves of fine sand.

Its small marina offers the opportunity to practice multiple water sports, it is also very pleasant to walk along the promenade that reaches every corner of Cabo Roig with excellent views and crystal clear waters full of marine life that are a delight for the practice of diving, whether professional or amateur. The beaches and coves offer space for sports, rest, take a bath or simply walk on the sand and enjoy the sea breeze.

Supermarket, tennis club, bars and restaurants that offer variety and typical gastronomy of the place and are a meeting place for friends and neighbors. Well located, within walking distance you will find up to three internationally renowned golf courses, as well as large shopping areas in Centro Comercial La Zenia Boulevard, which is considered one of the largest shopping and leisure centres in the Mediterranean basin.
