Road access
Budling allowance on the plot is 600m²

The plot is situated on the highest point of Antipaxos. Once, a family home with a vineyard used to make a very large amount of wine which was then transported and sold on Paxos.

The stone-built two-storied house is still in excellent condition structurally. It is situated on the South Part of the plot, and it has two stone-curved water cisterns.

Stone walls surround the property. It has access from the only road. Therefore, access for any work is guaranteed.

The whole property is terraced with stone, telling the story of the land being used for agriculture.

The famous beaches of Antipaxos are only a 15-minute walk or 5 minutes if you have an electric bike or other vehicles.
