Here, amidst breathtaking vistas and unparalleled privacy, you can create lasting memories and discover the true essence of la dolce vita.

ABOUT THE AREA

Narni is a comune (municipality) in the Province of Terni in the Italian region Umbria, located about 60 kilometers (37 mi) southwest of Perugia and about 10 kilometers (6 mi) northwest of Terni.

Narni is a hill town of ancient origin, whose territory was inhabited since the Neolithic age. The town was originally an Umbrian settlement, later conquered by the Romans in the 4th century BC. Narni became a municipium in 90 BC and was a flourishing town during the Roman Empire.

In the Middle Ages, Narni was an important member of the Lombard League and was later ruled by the Guelphs and Ghibellines. The town was sacked by the troops of Frederick Barbarossa in 1155 and by those of Charles of Anjou in 1265.

In the 14th century, Narni was ruled by the Papal States and became an important center of the Renaissance. The town was visited by many famous artists and scholars, including Leonardo da Vinci, Raphael, and Petrarch.

Narni is a beautiful town with a rich history and culture. The town is home to many important monuments, including the Cathedral of San Giovenale, the Rocca Albornoziana, and the Ponte Cardona.

The Cathedral of San Giovenale is a Romanesque-Gothic cathedral that was built in the 12th century. The cathedral is home to a number of important works of art, including a polyptych by Benozzo Gozzoli.

The Rocca Albornoziana is a 14th-century fortress that was built by Cardinal Gil de Albornoz. The fortress is now a museum that houses a collection of medieval and Renaissance art.

The Ponte Cardona is a 13th-century bridge that crosses the River Nera. The bridge is a beautiful example of medieval engineering.

Narni is also home to a number of other important monuments, including the Church of San Francesco, the Church of Sant'Agostino, and the Palazzo dei Priori.
