Description:

This granite property typical of the verdant Minho region, north-west region of Portugal, offers an exceptional setting with views of the fields, vineyards and nearby rivers.

The municipality of Póvoa de Lanhoso (20,000 inhabitants) is nearby and offers all the necessary infrastructure.

The first stones of the house were laid in 1743. The house has been expanded and renovated over the years to offer a blend of old-world charm and modern conveniences. The last renovations, carried out by an architect, date back about ten years.

Its spacious plot of 10,130 m2 adorned with olive trees, fruit trees and oaks makes it an ideal property for a private residence or tourist investment. A natural source is available.

The property has a living area of 546 m2 over 2 floors. 3 connecting houses are built around the large central courtyard. The main house has a kitchen, living room, dining room and 3 suites. The second house has a kitchen and living room, a dining room and 1 suite. In the third house, 2 suites can be created.

The outdoor swimming pool offers exceptional views of the countryside.

An approved project of 10 suites can be developed as part of a tourist activity.

Location: Minho is an area of outstanding natural beauty with mountains, valleys and a spectacular Atlantic coastline. Its capital is the city of Braga.

At 10 km, the municipality of Póvoa de Lanhoso is one of the largest river beaches in Portugal.

25 kms: Historic cities such as Braga and Guimarães, ideal setting for nature and culture lovers. With the historic centre of Guimarães a UNESCO World Heritage Site, this area is full of opportunities for discovery and adventure.

30 km away, the Gerês National Park.

50 km away: the Atlantic coast with many renowned beaches such as Praia de Cepães

80 km away: the city of Porto - Francisco Sá Carneiro Airport

The proximity of these easily accessible towns, historical and natural sites and river beaches make it an attractive site for visitors.
