Description:

EXCLUSIVE TO BEAUX VILLAGES! A little gem in the Indre countryside not far from amenities and forest walk ways, ideal for hiking and horse riding. The property is in a quiet hamlet a few minutes drive from the popular and lively town of Chaillac with bars and cafes and a large swimming lake. The motorway is a short drive with links to Limoges with the international airport and regular flights to the UK. You enter into the property via a covered sunny veranda to the right of which is a bathroom with shower, toilet and wash-hand basin and plumbing for a washing machine. The ground floor consists of an open plan kitchenette, dining and living room area with a wood burning stove and there is a downstairs bedroom. The first floor is a mezzanine which at present isn't split but has room for two bedrooms currently there are two sleeping areas and a living space but it could make two separate bedrooms if required (subject to necessary permissions). There is a courtyard to the front of the property and an attached garden to the side of the house with a garden shed (whilst is no land to the rear there is a nice flat plot in front of the house). Total of around 1171m2. This would be an ideal holiday cottage lock up and leave.
