Description:

Glad to announce this marvelous villa located in the parish of São Martinho, one of the noblest locations in Funchal full of renowned restaurants and many services in the surroundings.

The villa has huge areas and spaces that await for your personal interior design project. Starting with the grounded floor where you can find a very large living room with tones of natural light giving access to the garden and pool area. Still in this level there is a high-ended kitchen island with top quality appliances and one social bathroom.

In the top floor there are 3 large suites with white laquered built-in closets and private bathroom. All suites are south-facing with marvelous sea view and also to the city. At New Year's Eve is perfectly possible to watch the fireworks from there.

For vehicle lovers there is a extremely big garage with space for up to 10 cars including also the technical area and one social bathroom.

By choosing this villa you will be able to enjoy all the best what Funchal can provide by having restaurants, cafes, shopping center and much more very close.

Schedule your visit now.
